1 (2) Statement of the case (plaintiff's).

2 Plaintiff's claim is for use of excessive force against him, threatening him,
3 stealing his legal work, and retaliation against him for filing grievances, and the 4 claims are made pursuant to the First, Fifth, Eighth, and Fourteenth Amendments.
5 Defendant Palencia handcuffed plaintiff and then threw plaintiff down a flight of 6 steps, what resulted in plaintiff being hospitalized and temporarily paralyzed.

1 (2) Statement of the Case. (Defendants)

2 Plaintiff, Korrell Santana Cole, who alleges that at the time of the subject
3 incident was a pretrial detainee in the custody of the Los Angeles County
4 Sheriff's Department ("LASD"), claims that Defendants used excessive force
5 against him, threatened him, confiscated his legal paperwork, and failed to 6 properly process his grievances. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendants
7 undertook these actions in retaliation for Plaintiff's filing of grievances against
8 LASD personnel.

9 Specifically, Plaintiff alleges that, on September 14, 2023, Defendant
10 Palencia handcuffed Plaintiff and intentionally caused him to fall down a flight of 11 stairs in Men's Central Jail. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendant Palencia's
12 actions caused him to be hospitalized and suffer "temporary paralysis." Also, that
13 Defendant Palencia had previously threatened Plaintiff for filing grievances,
14 chilling his right to petition the government for redress of grievances. Defendants
15 have denied all of Plaintiff's material allegations.

16 Primary Affirmative Defenses:

- 17 1. Qualified immunity, as to the individual Defendants.
18 2. Plaintiff has failed to mitigate his damages.
19 3. Plaintiff's claims are barred by Eleventh Amendment Immunity.
20 4. Pursuant to Newport City v. Fact Concerts, Inc., 453 U.S. 247, 101 S.Ct
21 2748 (1981), all defendants sued in their official capacities are not liable for 22 exemplary or punitive damages in any sum, or at all.
23 5. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, pursuant to the Prison
24 Litigation Reform Act.

25 Procedural History:

26 12/11/2023: Plaintiff filed Complaint.

27 05/02/24: Plaintiff filed a dismissal as to County of Los Angeles.

28 05/06/2024: Plaintiff filed Proof of Service of Complaint.

1 06/10/2024: Defendants Sheriff Robert Luna, Andrew Palencia, Brian
2 Pineda, Sergio Palacios, and Clayton Seltzer filed their Answer.

1 (3) Damages/Insurance:

2 a. Damages. The speculative, realistic range of provable damages is highly
3 subjective, and may be in the range of: compensatory - $250,000.00; punitive -
4 $500,000.00.

5 b. Insurance. The County of Los Angeles and its Sheriff's Dept. employees
6 are self-insured.

1 (3) Damages/Insurance. (Defendants)

2 a. Damages.

3 Plaintiff claims $250,000 in compensatory damages and $500,000 in 4 punitive damages. Plaintiff has failed to provide any specificity or evidence in 5 support of his damages claim.

6 b. Insurance.

7 The County of Los Angeles is permissibly self-insured under the
8 laws of the State of California.

1 (4) Parties, Evidence, etc.
2 Plaintiff, Korrell Cole.
3 Defendants, Robert Luna, Andrew Palencia, Brian Pineda, Sergio Palacios,
4 and Clayton Seltzer.
5 Percipient witnesses, the parties.
6 Key documents, plaintiff's grievances.

1 (4) Parties, Evidence, etc. (Defendants)

2 Based on information currently known, Defendants anticipate the following
3 list of witnesses and key documents:

4 1. Parties – Plaintiff and each of the named individual Defendants,
5 Sheriff Robert Luna, Andrew Palencia, Brian Pineda, Sergio Palacios, and
6 Clayton Seltzer.

7 2. Percipient Witnesses: In addition to the Defendants who worked at 8 the jail where Plaintiff was incarcerated at the time of the incident, LASD
9 personnel involved in the incarceration of Plaintiff and his grievances; as well as 10 medical personnel (LASD or otherwise) involved in the treatment of Plaintiff's
11 alleged injuries.

12 3. Person(s) most knowledgeable from the LASD regarding policies
13 and procedures related to Plaintiff's claims; and

14 4. Key Documents – LASD policies upon which Plaintiff bases his 15 Monell claims (that have not yet been identified or disclosed by Plaintiff); any 16 available video recordings of Plaintiff during the alleged incident(s); the 17 paperwork that Plaintiff alleges was taken from him (which has not been 18 identified or disclosed by Plaintiff); LASD documents related to Plaintiff's
19 incarceration including, without limitation, inmate movement, inmate grievances,
20 inmate discipline reports, and other documents specific to Plaintiff or inmate
21 witnesses; medical records related to the treatment of Plaintiff's alleged injuries.

1 (5) Discovery.

2 a. Status of Discovery.

3 No discovery to date by plaintiff.

4 Plaintiff will propound: requests for admissions, interrogatories, and
5 requests to produce, and then may depose all defendants.

6 b. Discovery Plan. See a.

1 (5) Discovery. (Defendants)

2 a. Status of Discovery.

3 Defendants are in the process of preparing written discovery to be
4 propounded upon Plaintiff. Defendants will propound written discovery
5 (interrogatories, requests for production, and requests for admissions), will take
6 depositions as necessary and proper (including of Plaintiff and any third-party 7 witnesses), and anticipates obtaining records from third parties by way of 8 subpoena.

9 b. Discovery Plan.

10 Please see above. In addition, Defendants contemplate discovery
11 will need to be completed as to Plaintiff's current medical condition, his relevant
12 pre-existing medical issues, the nature or extent of Plaintiff's injuries.

13 Defendants also believe that a medical examination of Plaintiff may be necessary.

14 Since Plaintiff is currently incarcerated, Defendants also contemplate
15 the necessity of obtaining an order to depose Plaintiff. If counsel for Plaintiff will 16 not stipulate to such an order, or if the Court will not sua sponte enter an order for 17 Plaintiff's in-custody deposition, then Defendants shall file an appropriate
18 motion.

1 (6)_ Legal Issues.

2 Whether there were violations of federal rights redressable under 42 U.S.C.
3 § 1983 and Monell v. Dep't of Soc. Svcs. of the City of New York, 436 U.S. 657
4 (1978), by virtue of the use of excessive force, refusals to process grievances, and
5 customs thereof.

1 (6) Legal Issues. (Defendants)

2 Defendants concur with Plaintiff's statement. Plaintiff's failure to exhaust
3 administrative remedies; qualified immunity; the applicability of the Prison
4 Litigation Reform Act; and 11th Amendment immunity. In addition, whether the 5 individual Defendants violated Plaintiff's rights and, if so, in what regard and 6 what damages arose therefrom. Furthermore, whether any Defendants would be 7 subject to supervisory liability and whether there is any basis for liability under
8 Monell (as to those Defendants sued in their official capacities).

1 (7) Motions.

2 Plaintiff does not presently contemplate motions.

1 (7) Motions. (Defendants)

2 a. Procedural Motions.

3 In the event that Plaintiff will not stipulate to his in-custody
4 deposition, or the Court will not sua sponte enter such an order, then Defendants
5 will bring a motion seeking an order for the same.

6 b. Dispositive Motions.

7 Defendants, at this early juncture, are unsure whether they will file a
8 motion for judgment on the pleadings. Moreover, subject to investigation and 9 discovery, Defendants anticipate filing a motion for summary judgment as to 10 liability and damages. Defendants contemplate that issues that may be 11 determined by such motion include qualified immunity, Plaintiff's failure to 12 exhaust administrative remedies, the applicability of the Prison Litigation Reform
13 Act, the lack of personal conduct of Defendants, and that there are no triable
14 issues of material fact concerning one or more of the elements of Plaintiff's 15 claims.

16 c. Class Certification Motion.

17 Not applicable.

- 1 (8) Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR).
- 2 a. No prior settlement discussions.
- 3 b. Plaintiff prefers any ADR procedure that has no cost, as plaintiff is
- 4 impecunious.

2 a. Prior Discussions.

3 No prior settlement discussions.

4 b. ADR Selection.

5 Defendants have not been provided any settlement demand by
6 Plaintiff. Defendants are willing to engage in reasonable settlement discussions
7 using a magistrate judge (ADR-1) or a panel mediator (ADR-2).

1 (9) Trial.

2 a. Proposed Trial Date.

3 Plaintiff. (7-12 months) Jan. 14, 2025.

4 b. Time estimate

5 Plaintiff. Three days, calling as witnesses all parties.

6 c. Jury or Court Trial.

7 Plaintiff. Jury Trial. Plaintiff requests 12 jurors.

1 (9) Trial. (Defendants)

2 a. Proposed Trial Date.

3 Defendants propose a July 2025 trial date.

4 Defendants believe Plaintiff's claims, due to their fact intensive
5 nature, will require significant discovery. Furthermore, Plaintiff's incarcerated
6 status will also create additional hurdles which will require time to resolve. For 7 these reasons, Defendants believe a July 2025 trial is appropriate.

8 b. Time Estimate.

9 Defendants believe that the case could be tried in three to four days.
10 Defendants are not confident in the number or identity of any potential witnesses
11 but contemplate at least a dozen custody personnel and at least half a dozen
12 medical personnel.

13 c. Jury or Court Trial.

14 Defendants request a jury trial.

15 d. Magistrate Judge.

16 Defendants do not consent to the use of a magistrate judge.

17 e. Trial Counsel.

18 If this case proceeds to trial, trial counsel will be Paul B. Beach.
